A diagram of a page layout. The page is white and framed by a light blue border. Two vertical cyan lines divide the page into three columns. A horizontal double-headed arrow at the top left indicates a width of 100 mm from the left edge to the first cyan line. A second horizontal double-headed arrow below it indicates a width of 200 mm from the left edge to the second cyan line. The word 'VERSO' is centered in the middle of the page.
